

Palestinian Police Officers take part in Tourist Police Course in Italy

Ramallah - Ten senior Palestinian police officers from Tourist Department have recently concluded a two-week course in an Italian police academy in Rome to help improve the capabilities of the Palestinian Tourist Police Department.

PCP Inaugurates a Protocol Unit

Ramallah - The Palestinian Civil Police (PCP) has officially inaugurated a Protocol Unit in a ceremony held in Ramallah to support PCP to properly organise ceremonies and other events based on best international standards and Palestinian traditions.

Incident Management Training for Uniformed Palestinian Police Officers

Jericho - Palestinian Civil Police and EUPOL COPPS devised a training lecture on Information Gathering and Incident Management and gave instructions to 20 frontline PCP officers at the new Jericho Police Training College this week.

E-Services for Lawyers – Workshops on MIZAN II

Ramallah - EUPOL COPPS is organizing a series of training workshop sessions for lawyers on the functioning of the new electronic case management programme, MIZAN II, to facilitate the work of the lawyers.

4th International Human Rights Competition for Lawyers Launched

Ramallah- Al Quds University and the International Institute for Human Rights and Peace have launched the 2012 edition of the 4th International Human Rights Competition for lawyers to increase people's awareness on Human Rights issues.

Palestinian Chief Justice in Rome to Agree with Italian High Judicial

Ramallah- Palestinian Chief Justice Farid al-Jallad, together with Judge Izzat A. M. Mousa, Head of the Palestinian High Judicial Council (HJC) Court Administration Department, and Judge Fathi Abu Srou, Head of the Palestinian HJC Inspectorate Department, participated in an official visit to the Italian High Judicial Council and Court of Cassation.

Palestinian Police officers participate in 'Interviewing Techniques' course

Sixteen Palestinian Juvenile Police officers participated in an advanced course on "Interviewing Techniques". It was organised by EUPOL COPPS and closely coordinated with PCP and UNOPS.