

EUPOL COPPS supports Prosecutors' Annual Conference

EUPOL COPPS' Head of Mission, Commissioner Henrik MALMQUIST, together with members of the Rule of Law Section, attended the Palestinian Public Prosecution Annual Conference 2010 which took place on 12th December in Bethlehem.

MoJ Workshops on Legislative Drafting and Planning & Reporting

EUPOL COPPS' supported a three-day workshop for lawyers from the Ministry of Justice focused on legislative planning and drafting, and another three-day workshop on Action Planning and Reporting for staff from different units across the Ministry.

New Training for Special Police Forces (SPF)

Fourteen Special Police Forces (SPF) officers completed a 4-day training course at the premises of the SPF Central Force in Ramallah. The training focused on different kinds of handcuffing, body searches, control and arrest techniques, as well as communication skills within a defensive tactics scheme.

PCP Study-trip to Ireland on International Human Rights

A PCP delegation met with the Irish Police (Garda Siochana) Ombudsman Commission (GSOC), including Commissioner Conor Brady and GSOC Director of Administration Anthony Duggan, during this Human Rights Study-trip to Ireland.

Study Trip to Finland for Palestinian Prosecutors

Seven economic crime prosecutors from the Attorney General's Office attended a study trip to Finland. The trip provided the trainees with examples of evidence admissibility, evaluation of evidence, asset tracing, international cooperation, modern investigation methods and coordination between Prosecution and Police.

New Anti-Corruption Training for Prosecutors and Judges

EUPOL COPPS' Prosecution Team delivered a training module to the prosecutors of the newly created Anti-Corruption Commission, other prosecutors and to judges on combating corruption and money laundering in Ramallah.

Visit of the New Spanish General Consul

The new Spanish Consul General in Jerusalem, Mr. Alfonso M. PORTABALES, paid an official visit to EUPOL COPPS on 1st December. During the visit, the Consul General was briefed on the mission activities by the Head of Mission and also met with the Spanish contingent members.

First Training for Operation Rooms Operators

EUPOL COPPS Police experts completed a training course for 84 non-commissioned PCP officers, who are currently working in its Operations Rooms (Ops. Rooms).